

A CHALLENGE TO ALL CHRISTIANS

Summer Camp 2009
27-29 November // Spring Beach
Guest Speaker: Jimbo Mobbs

Tas.PY Summer Camp 2009: A Challenge to all Christians

8.00pm, Friday 27 - 2.00pm, Sunday 29 November // Spring Beach Convention Centre

How often do you confess your sins? Would you say, as a Christian, you are thankful? Do you understand what praising and worshipping God means? And most importantly, do you know what the gospel is?

Prepare to be both challenged and encouraged as we look at four key areas of the Christian life where there is some confusion about what they mean, where the true meaning has been lost, or where we find some much needed encouragement.

Guest Speaker // Jimbo Mobbs

Jimbo Mobbs is an Assistant Minister at Dapto Anglican Church, south of Sydney. He is married to Vivienne, and they have a 6 month old son, Brendon, who often wears a shirt that says 'Future Mr Right' and a bib that says 'Dinner's on me.' Along with enjoying long moonlit walks on the beach, Jimbo enjoys rugby league, anything to do with motorbikes, the Simpsons, watching Bold and the Beautiful, cooking and going to yummy food places on his day off.

I/my children agree to abide by the event rules and the decisions of the event leaders. The leader's expectation is that all people attending the event will be there because they want to be involved in the whole event. If signing on behalf of a person under 18 years old, I approve of the application and in doing so recognise that the leaders will take all reasonable safety precautions, but that the Presbyterian Church of Australia, its officers and servants cannot be responsible for any misadventure, injury or illness that occurs during the event or while travelling to or from it. In signing, I also approve the use of any photographs or video taken of my child/myself at this event for church purposes, unless a signed letter of objection is received in writing with this registration form by Sunday November 8,
